

Student Learning Outcomes:

- I. As a result of attending Orientation, students will know UCF's academic expectations and their responsibility for their own academic experience.
This includes academic advising, class registration, degree requirements, deadlines, etc.
- II. As a result of attending Orientation, students will be aware of UCF's social expectations and community standards.
This includes the Golden Rule, the UCF Creed, Federal Regulations, etc.
- III. As a result of attending Orientation, students will be aware of UCF's opportunities for engagement in academic and co-curricular activities.
This includes involvement opportunities, leadership positions, and College-specific experiences.
- IV. As a result of attending Orientation, students will know they have a responsibility for their decisions and actions academically, socially, and personally as an UCF Knight.
This includes academic deadlines, financial responsibilities, etc.

Guest Learning Outcomes:

- I. As a result of attending Orientation, guests will know they play a supportive role in their student's transition process.
- II. As a result of attending Orientation, guests will know UCF's academic expectations and their student's responsibility for their own academic experience.
- III. As a result of attending Orientation, guests will know it is their student's responsibility to make decisions and take actions related to their academic, social, and personal experience as an UCF Knight.
- IV. As a result of attending Orientation, guests will know there are resources to support students academically, socially, and personally as an UCF Knight.